LONG ISLAND P-TECH APPLICATION
May 2014

P-TECH (Pathways in Technology Early College High School) is a nationally recognized program praised by President Obama and NYS Governor Andrew Cuomo. All costs are paid for by P-TECH, including tuition and books. Starting in Grade 9, there is a six-year commitment from students and parents, leading to a NYS Regents Diploma and an Associate’s Degree in Mechanical Engineering Technology from Farmingdale State College. Upon completion, graduates will be “first-in-line” to be considered for careers at prestigious local businesses. Examples of jobs include: Chemical Technicians, Environmental Engineering Technicians, Mechanical Drafters, Electrical and Engineering Technicians, Mechanical Technicians, and Industrial Engineering Technicians.
